Issue 212 10th March 2023

Dear parents and carers

This week we've had wooden spoon characters galore arriving at school. On Tuesday, Mrs Phillipson and I had the honour of selecting the winning entries. Congratulations to Sophia-Lily (Rec), Charlotte (Y1), Ellie (Y2), Liza (Y3) and Oliver (Y6). All our spoons are now proudly on display.

We also had an exciting visit from 'Down Syndrome Cheshire' who delivered lots of boxes of gingerbread socks to some of our prefects in preparation for Odd Sock day later this month.

Have a great weekend.

Stay safe and warm.

Mr Adlington
Principal

Illegal Parking

We have noticed several parents parking on the double yellow lines and solid white lines near school. This is illegal and is disappointing. When the police and traffic wardens are in attendance, it does not happen. Please park safely and respectfully for the safety of our pupils, neighbours and yourself.

Friday
17th
March

Children can come into school wearing something red (along with their school uniform) on Friday 17th March. Please make any donations to Comic Relief by clicking on the link below. Thank you

Easter Service

We will be visiting St Michael and All Angels once again for our Easter service at 10am on Friday 31st March. If you would like to volunteer to walk with the school, please contact the office. You will be needed at school from 9:15am. Many thanks

Merits

- 1 Miss Parton/Miss Welch – Felix B, for coming to school ready and doing some wonderful writing in phonics.
- 2 Mrs Higgins – Sophie S, for trying hard to make her handwriting even neater and smaller. Well done, Sophie!
- 3 Mrs Phillipson – Ava G, for her beautiful handwriting in her golden writing.
- 4 Mrs Giblin – Georgina T, for a great factual golden write.
- 5 Mr Varnom – Isla B, for writing a brilliant story about The Bog Baby.
- 6 Miss Addis – Roman M, for his super handwriting and for using challenging vocabulary within his English.
- 7 Miss Platt – Joshua L, for his outstanding writing about the gladiator battle.
- 8 Miss Gee – Jude J, for an amazing attitude to learning during English, enabling him to produce some incredible paragraphs based on the Romans.
- 9 Mrs Appleton/Mrs Peters – Blake A, for his effective writing – well chosen language choices!
- 10 Mr Gill – Carter T, for showing a real effort to improve his presentation this week. Keep it up, Carter.
- 11 Mrs Marsland – Amelia P, for her excellent reasoning in maths - Thinking like a true mathematician!
- 12 Miss Wagstaff – Ethan M, for excellent knowledge and understanding in history.

EYFS News

'The Naughty Bus' created mess and chaos in our classroom this week. It really got the children thinking. They have drawn maps, written labels and sentences and imagined where the bus might go next. In maths, we have been looking at odd and even numbers - noticing the pattern of odd, even, odd, even etc and predicting whether the number that comes next will be an even or an odd number. By using the Numicon, the children have been able to see the number 'shape' and have used this to find pairs and the odd one out. In PE, the children have been learning how to play team games, negotiate the spaces around them and follow the rules of the game. They did a fantastic job!

To kick off next week's story on Monday we would like to have a 'Pyjama Day.' Please can the children come to school wearing pyjamas, dressing gowns etc with enough layer's underneath to keep them warm? They will need to wear their normal school shoes ready for playing outside. The 'journey' next week will be a magical one!

Please remember to provide permission for us to take your child to Delamere Forest on our very own 'journey' on the 29th March. Payments and permission can be given via the school app.

Please note: we have A LOT of PE kit and uniform without names. Please check your child's clothes over the weekend and add names if they have been washed off over time. If you have any missing clothes, please let us know.

Have a great weekend, The EYFS team
